Description of the activity: L’Aura de Maurienne- a monumental collective artwork to address individualism

L’Aura de Maurienne-

a monumental collective artwork to address individualism

The aim of the activity was to get students familiar with Land’Art solidarity-based art creation in the world in the Maurienne region, Savoy, France and prepare them for the exchange in Spain. Not only did this mind-broadening activity make students feel their contribution to this unique and monumental work of art but also gave them a chance to feel like artists who can give a halo a personal touch, by drawing pictures, showing their feelings and emotions.
